Braille Edition of ISSUES TODAY

We are happy to advise at this time that enough tentative orders have been received for a Braille edition of ISSUES TODAY (the semi-monthly magazine for high school social studies) so that we shall start publication with the 1st of February, 1970, Volume II, Number 11. Because we have received tentative orders for over 300 copies per issue, the subscription rate will be $26.10 per year, $11.60 for the remainder of this school year, or $1.45 per single copy.

At this time we need to know the following:

1. The exact number of copies you wish to order for the remainder of this school year.
2. Whether charges are to be made to your quota account or if you should be billed on accounts-receivable basis.
3. The exact address to be used in mailing each copy.

According to our records, you tentatively ordered ____ number of copies to be shipped each week. Please verify this number, the address, and how the magazines are to be charged, and return this information immediately so that we can start your subscription with the first issue.

NOTE: Only the Braille Edition of the magazine can be furnished through the Printing House. Ink-print copies for your teachers must be purchased from: American Education Publications, 1250 Fairwood Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43215
